

Punyashlok Ahilyadevi Holkar Solapur

University, Solapur

School of Languages and literature

Department of Prakrit

Program Objectives and Outcome

M.A.

OBJECTIVES :-

- i) To acquaint with the Prakrit language, its different roots and Grammar.
- ii) To Study the life and work of Indian ancient Prakrit Authors & Acharya
- iii) To Study Jain Philosophy written in Prakrit literature
- iv) To introduce the Literature in Prakrit Language
- v) To introduce the scientific knowledge in Prakrit Language
- vi) To study of Modern Indian Languages
- vii) To inculcate language related skills.

Programme Specific Outcomes:

Programme Relevance:

- Employ critical reading as an effective basis of literary inquiry, through close reading of form and discourse through engagement with literary contexts.
- Employ the strong understanding of the context of literature as a basis of literary inquiry. These contexts include: the influence of culture, race and gender; genre, literary traditions, and historical periods; literary production and the insight of literary theories.
- Develop strong writing skills relevant to literary inquiry. These skills include clear expression and sound mechanic, and productive of critical insight. They can be practiced in creative writing, research, and critical argument.

Local development Needs :

As the programme contains various skills it became helpful to stand in local relevance. With the help of Shiksha they can research work in ancient Prakrit books. The writing and translating skills will help them to work in various fields and also free lancing translation.

National development Need :

The programme is pro research. Implementation of small research projects will help in developing research habits.

Global development Needs:

The programme is pro research. Implementation of small research projects will help in developing research habits. It is seen that thoughts or science related doctrines of Indian Seers are nature, environment friendly. So one can research and get solutions on problems like global warming, vanishing of values etc.

Objectives and outcomes of the Course:

Sr. No.	Objectives	Outcomes
I	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To introduce students with new literary theories	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Employ the critical understanding of the literary theories.
II	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To develop various skills in the student to increase employability● To improve the linguistic competence along with the literary competence of the students	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Employ the understanding of phonology, Morphology, Semantics, and Pragmatics.
III	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To introduce the students with history with modern Prakrit	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Employ the understanding of Prakrit Literature within British and Modern Era.
IV	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To understand the Prakrit philosophical literature.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● It transmits our culture to next generation.
V	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To introduce linguistics study of Prakrit language	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Employ the understanding of nature and function of language through Study of Linguistics
VI	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To develop interrelation between literature and society	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Employ the understanding of the interrelationship between ancient literature and society
VII	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● to make study of Prakrit literature from First century	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Employ the understanding of the impact of social movements in Prakrit
VIII	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● To introduce Poetry form with reference to Prakrit	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Understand the genre, the social, Political and historical background of

		Literature
--	--	------------