Personality is an important thing in the life of a person that determines not only his professional success but also his overall behavior and attitude in life. Personality as a whole means a combination of characteristics and appearances of an individual that includes the pattern of thought, feelings, attitude, his behavior, communication ability and physical features. It has been believed that a child inherits a lot of personality traits from its parents. Every individual is different from the other and possesses a personality of his own that is unique from the others in every form. Our surroundings, choices are determined to a great extent by our individual personality and the way we behave. Personality Development is a tool through which we bring out your capabilities and our strengths making ourselves aware of our inner self and become more confident to face the outside world. It has been believed that the personality of a person takes its basic formation in the beginning period of childhood. The childhood experiences in the family and the society are very crucial that helps an individual to develop certain traits and characteristics.

The Student life is considered as foundation of a future life. Here he learns various life skills and prepare his views and attitude. If he succeed in acquiring the basic skills and competencies ultimately he may get what he wants. But students are heterogeneous in acquiring and learning the things. Some may have well others may don't have the ability to learn the things properly. Here such workshop can play the role of facilitator.
