I have soft copy of my passport size colour photograph (scanned with min.72 to max.150 dpi click here for acceptable photograph guide).

Click to “Upload” button

The screenshot displays a web interface for uploading a photograph and signature. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a hamburger menu icon, the title "Upload Photograph and Signature", and a speaker icon. Below this, a secondary bar contains radio buttons for "Photograph" (selected) and "Signature", along with "Browse", "Crop", and "Upload" buttons. The "Upload" button is highlighted with a green rectangular box. In the main area, a small portrait photograph of a woman is visible. To the right, a "Photo & Sign Preview" section shows a placeholder for a "Signature" with the text "Signature Not Available" and a green "Proceed" button. Below the preview, a red text note reads: "I have soft copy of my passport size colour photograph (scanned with min.72 to max.150 dpi click here for acceptable photograph guide)."

Click “Browse” for Select Sign for uploading

The screenshot shows a web application interface for uploading a signature. At the top, there is a header with a menu icon, a title "Upload Photograph and Signature", and a speaker icon. Below the header, a green notification bar states "Photograph uploaded successfully! Now upload signature." The main content area has two radio buttons: "Photograph" (unselected) and "Signature" (selected). A file selection dialog box is open over the "Signature" section. The dialog box is titled "Open" and shows the "Desktop" location. It contains a list of files, with "signature.jpg" highlighted by a green box. The "Open" button at the bottom of the dialog is also highlighted with a green box. In the background, the "Signature" section shows a "Signature Not Available" status and a green "Proceed" button. A red text overlay at the bottom right of the dialog box reads: "Upload my passport size colour photograph (scanned with a scanner) and click here for acceptable photograph guide."
