Semester-III: Co-Curricular Course (CC)

Title of the Paper: Leadership through NCC

PREAMBLE:

NCC is a discipline that instills among the youth the qualities of unity, discipline, social service, leadership, personality development and patriotism. Presently, the youth in India need to be motivated and inspired to join armed forces and to provide selfless service to the country. NCC has proved to be an effective means of developing character of the students and making them the citizens worthy of the nation. The society is definitely affected due to the sudden events that happen while living the daily life in the society. For example, a disaster like an earthquake can demoralize the community. In such cases, it is necessary to have effective leadership in the society. The course has been prepared with the intention of creating motivation among the students regarding the development in the society. The designed course must be studied by all students thanks to its unique importance in social life. Therefore, it was felt necessary that the discipline should be made a part of the curriculum. As a result, the subject NCC Studies has been introduced as a Co-Curricular Course.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Develop character, camaraderie, discipline, and secular outlook, the spirit of adventure, sportsman spirit and ideals of selfless service amongst cadets by working in teams.
2. To create interest in cadets by including and laying emphasis on those aspects of institutional training to attract young cadets into the NCC.
3. To inculcate defence Services work ethos that is characterized by hard work, sincerity of purpose, honesty, ideal of selfless service, dignity of labour, secular outlook, comradeship, spirit of adventure and sportsmanship.
4. To create a pool of organized, trained and motivated youth with leadership qualities in all walks of life, who will serve the Nation regardless of which career they choose.
5. To provide conducive environment to motivate young Indians to choose the Armed Forces as a career.
6. To teach and develop the qualities such as self-discipline, self-confidence, self-reliance and dignity of labour in the cadets.
